

“By the Numbers ”

Families and technology

- ▶ 10% The proportion of surveyed students in Grade 7-12 who reported spending 7+ hours per day in front of a television or computer in 2010/11 (12% boys, 8% girls). bit.ly/N3eWrO
- ▶ 30% The proportion of surveyed CDN parents who report that their 10-13 year old child/children plays 7+ hours per week playing video games. scr.bi/PH06FW
- ▶ 25% The proportion of surveyed CDN parents whose 10-13 year old child/children own(s) a Smartphone. scr.bi/PH06FW
- ▶ 28 & 15% The number of female and male students, respectively, in Grade 7-12 who reported being a victim of cyberbullying in 2010/11. bit.ly/N3eWrO
- ▶ 53% The proportion of surveyed CDN parents who report that their 10-13 year old child/children own(s) their own personal computer(s). scr.bi/PH06FW
- ▶ 52% The proportion of surveyed CDNs aged 18-24 who are friends with their parents on Facebook. slidesha.re/NiMl42
- ▶ 37% The proportion of surveyed CDNs aged 18-24 who agree that “growing up with technology sets me up for more success than my parents’ generation”. slidesha.re/NiMl42
- ▶ 23% The proportion of surveyed CDNs aged 18-24 who agree that “technology helps me have a better relationship with my parents”. slidesha.re/NiMl42
- ▶ 42% The proportion of surveyed CDN parents who agree that “technology allows me to stay closer to my kids”. slidesha.re/NiMl42
- ▶ 21% The proportion of surveyed CDN parents who “use social media like Facebook to keep track of [their] kid(s)”. slidesha.re/NiMl42
- ▶ 35% The proportion of surveyed CDN parents who agree that “technology keeps my family closer together”. slidesha.re/NiMl42